

Alexander Glebocki, Regional Manager
Community Mental Health Services, Central Region Office
NJ Division of Mental Health & Addictions Services (DMHAS)
Phone: 609-777-0687
Email: Al.Glebocki@dhs.state.nj.us

Alexander Glebocki is a Public Healthcare Administrator with 20+ years of leadership and supervisory experience in the development and implementation of successful community mental healthcare service systems serving children and adults throughout New Jersey. Demonstrated history of success in working with other service systems, governmental entities, consumers and families to improve delivery of mental services to adults and children, including those with dual diagnoses of and substance abuse and/or developmental disabilities. Experienced in the planning, development and implementation of suicide prevention programs to serve youth and adults throughout all life stages.

EDUCATION:

M.A., Public Affairs and Human Services Administration, 1989, Rider University, Lawrenceville, NJ

B.A., Psychology, 1973, Temple University, Philadelphia, PA

SYSTEM SUPPORT ACTIVITIES:

- Department of Human Services representative to the NJ Youth Suicide Prevention Advisory Committee.
- Member of the Clinical Work Group of the NJ Department of Human Services Dual Diagnosis (DD-MI) Task Force.
- Co-Chair of the NJ DMHAS Suicide Prevention Advisory Committee.
- Certified NJ Disaster Response Crisis Counselor (DRCC) – Deployed in both 2011 and 2012 due to tropical storm and hurricane evacuations,